Expand your knowledge on Business Insurance Essentials

Chris Ladley was raised in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania and is a Senior Marketing Representative with Federated Mutual insurance. He specializes in commercial, life & disability insurance. He's been an active consultant in the Lehigh Valley both to small and large businesses since 2007. His expertise is in property insurance, general liability, commercial auto, commercial & personal umbrellas, employment-related practices, and worker's compensation has brought tremendous value to his clients over the years. Chris particularly enjoys working with clients on their risk-management processes and has been successful in implementing loss cost analyses, workers compensation experience modification plans, risk management protocols, key person insurance programs, employee handbooks, safety manuals, and estate/succession plans for his clients.

Chris graduated with a B.A from Muhlenberg College, located in Allentown, Pa. where he received a degree in Marketing. He enjoys playing basketball and has coached the Elementary Basketball Team at The Swain School for 8 years located in Allentown, PA. Chris received his LUTCF designation from The American College and the National Association of insurance and Financial Advisors in June 2012 and was later awarded the title of Senior Marketing Representative in November 2017. Chris Ladley currently resides in Allentown, Pennsylvania with his wife and two children.

The focus of this session is to expand your knowledge on Business Insurance essentials. Chris Ladley, from Federated Insurance, is a 13-year professional in the Lehigh Valley that works with a wide array of industries and customers to ensure their insurance needs are up to date, adequate, and appropriate for their business operations. He will educate the group on the key components of your insurance premium, how to implement risk management practices and how to manage worker's compensation costs.
